To amend the Marine Traffic Act, 1981, in order to extend the definition of offshore installation so as to include therein pipelines and floating production vessels; to provide for the establishment of safety zones around offshore installations; to create offences in respect of such installations; and to prescribe penalties for such offences; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

4. Short title.
   This Act shall be called the Marine Traffic Amendment Act, 1993.